

What I Want

© 2020 C.S. Taber

You just walked through the door like you knew a thing or two
You seem pretty damn sure that I'm still in love with you

What I want
Oh baby what I want
I want your picture off the wall
Want your suitcase in the hall
What I need
Oh baby what I need
I need you on a bus for home
I could best be myself
If I'd be myself alone

You walk around inside my head like you're searching for a clue
You pull every tangled thread and you never think it's you

What I want
Oh baby what I want
I want your skinny jeans off my floor
Your Gucci boots walking out my door
What I need
Oh baby what I need
I need you on a bus for home
I could best be myself
If I'd be myself alone

You think you own my bleeding heart
'cause I wear it on my sleeve
You never were quite as smart as you wanted to believe

What I want
Oh baby what I want
Want your mind games out my head
Your throw pillows off my bed
What I need
Oh baby what I need
I'll delete you from my phone
I could best be myself
If I'd be myself alone

What I want
Oh baby what I want
Picture off the wall
Suitcase in the hall
What I need
Need you on a bus for home
If I'd be myself alone
Gonna be myself alone
Be myself alone
